

A PROCLAMATION OF THANKS-GIVING.

Executive Department State of Arizona.

In these troublous times, when the countries of Europe are being devastated by rival armies; when foreign homes and firesides are being made desolate by visitation of Death; when in brief, the strifes of humankind are impeding the wheels of industry and threatening that ideal civilization to the attainment of which universal peace is deemed essential, the people of the United States, with amity indwelling, are by Divine dispensation permitted to pursue in quietude the multiple activities of everyday life whereby the sustenance of Home and Church and State is afforded security and permanence. Arizona, as an integral part of our Nation, being likewise under the guardianship of that Divine Providence which bestows all rewards and blessings upon mankind, continues to garner the fruits of industry resultant from the development of her wondrous resources, while the future of the State is bright with promise and her people are animated by a spirit of hopefulness that is futurity's best augury.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Geo. W. P. Hunt, Governor of Arizona, acting in observance of a revered national custom, in pursuance of law, and in accordance with the proclamation of our honored President, Woodrow Wilson, do hereby proclaim that THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26th, 1914, shall be set aside as a day of thanksgiving, on which, with appropriate ceremonies and festivities, all citizens may, at altar and fireside, manifest unto the omnipotent Creator their gratitude for blessings divinely conferred, and may, by generous exercise of kindness toward the needy and infirm, show themselves imbued with that universal and all-pervasive love that tempers the chastening of circumstance and ameliorates the sting of human woes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Arizona to be affixed.

Done at the City of Phoenix, the Capital, this sixteenth day of November, 1914.

Geo. W. P. Hunt,
Governor of Arizona.

Attest:
SIDNEY P. OSBORN,
Secretary of State.

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT IN ARIZONA.

There appears to be considerable misapprehension as well as curiosity over the exact term of the dry amendment. Here is the document exactly as it has been adopted by the Arizona electorate:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA.

Prohibiting the introduction into the manufacture of, and the giving, exchanging, bartering, or selling or disposing of ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine or intoxicating liquors, in the state of Arizona, and prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof. Be enacted by the people of the State of Arizona.

That the constitution of the State of Arizona be and is hereby amended by adding thereto another article, the same to be numbered XXIII and to read as follows, to wit:

Section 1. Ardent spirits, ale beer, wine, or intoxicating liquor or liquors of whatever kind shall not be manufactured in, or introduced into the State of Arizona under any pretense. Every person who sells, exchanges, gives, barter, or disposes of any ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine, or intoxicating liquor of any kind, to any person in the State of Arizona, or who manufactures or introduces into or attempts to introduce into the State of Arizona any ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine, or intoxicating liquor of any kind, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be imprisoned for not less than ten days nor more than two years, and fined not less than twenty-five dollars and costs nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense; provided, that nothing in this amendment contained shall apply to the manufacture or sale of denatured alcohol.

Section 2. The legislature shall by appropriate legislation provide for the carrying into effect of this amendment.

Section 3. This amendment shall take effect on and be in force on and after the first day of January, 1915.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
